

Chasing the wind

Paul Sloth/Regional News

CATCHING A STRONG gust of wind Monday afternoon, David Schuster, a Linn Township resident, spent a few hours kite skiing on Geneva Lake. Schuster was testing a new kite from his wife Sarah's store Clear Water Outdoor in Lake Geneva. He figured the strong winds allowed him to reach speeds of almost 30 mph. With the unpredictable nature of strong winds,

Schuster said his biggest concern was getting pulled into the open water near the Riviera piers.
